

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and thus
has a legal obligation to act in the public interest.
Their decision to
illegally engage in electioneering in violation of federal election law and air
the anti-Kerry film
"Stolen Honor" just days before the election is a
blatant abrogation
of their journalistic responsibilities and an affront to democracy and the democratic process.

Sinclair's
arrogantly
irresponsible
attitude in this matter must surely bring into serious
question any consideration given to the renewal of their broadcasting
license. Sincerely,
Ed Frank. Houston,
